Exemption to COVID-19 entry ban for visiting grandchild

You should fill in this declaration only if you wish to enter the Netherlands for a short stay from a country that is subject to an entry ban in connection with COVID-19 (see the current list of countries for which no entry ban applies). Are you fully vaccinated and can you present proof of this? In that case, you do not need to fill in this declaration.

Please note: Filling in this declaration contrary to the truth is a criminal offence, which will be reported in all cases. You must present this declaration if your transporter asks for it and/or upon entry at the border with the Netherlands.

3 Declaration

The sponsor(s) and the foreign national(s) declare that the grandparents are coming to the Netherlands to visit their minor grandchild(ren). (It is all right to enter the details of only one grandchild, even if the visit will involve multiple grandchildren):

3.1 Name of grandchild

3.2 Date of birth

Day	Month	Year

As part of this declaration, you must enclose evidence showing that the child in question is your grandchild/child. If your grandchild has just been born, you can attach a birth certificate or document from a hospital or family doctor as proof of the birth.

By signing this declaration, you acknowledge that you are aware of the COVID-19 rules currently in effect in the Netherlands and agree to abide by them. To see which rules apply to you, visit:
