

Declaration of exemption from COVID-19 entry ban for visiting your child as a divorced parent

Complete this declaration if you wish to come to the Netherlands for a short stay from a country to which the COVID-19 EU entry ban applies (See <https://www.government.nl/topics/coronavirus-covid-19/visiting-the-netherlands-from-abroad> for an up-to-date list of countries that do not fall under the entry ban.)

Please note: Completing this declaration untruthfully is a criminal offence that will be reported to the authorities. You must show this declaration at the request of the airline you are travelling with and/or at the Dutch border.

3 Declaration of visiting parent

I declare that I wish to come to the Netherlands for the purpose of visiting my child/children. I declare that I bear partial financial and/or other responsibility for my child's/children's upbringing and can provide evidence of this. I also declare that I have seen my children in person on a regular basis in recent years, in any case at least once a year, and can also provide evidence of this.

Please note: this declaration must be accompanied by a statement signed by the other parent confirming their consent to your visiting the child/children. You must also be able to provide evidence of previous visits and of your financial and/or other responsibility for your child's/children's upbringing. You may be asked to show this documentation at the point of entry to the Netherlands.

By signing this declaration, you state that you are aware of and will comply with the COVID-19 rules that apply in the Netherlands. To find out what rules apply to you, please go to: <https://www.government.nl/topics/coronavirus-covid-19/visiting-the-netherlands-from-abroad/exemptions-to-the-entry-ban/eu-entry-ban-exemption-categories>.
