

NOMINATION FORM Human Rights Tulip 2022

INSTRUCTIONS

The Human Rights Tulip is an award presented by the Dutch government for human rights defenders who promote and support human rights in innovative ways. Please see www.humanrightstulip.nl for further information on the award.

You can nominate organisations and individuals who you consider worthy of this award.

Those eligible are human rights defenders who:

- Accept the universality of human rights as defined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)
- Defend a human right as defined in the UDHR
- Work to defend human rights in a nonviolent manner
-

Please note that no human rights defenders will be considered who are deceased or inactive at the time of nomination.

Nominations can be submitted by filling in the nomination form below, as completely as possible, and sending it to dmm-tulip@minbuza.nl.

All nominations must be submitted before 2 August 2022.

Please provide two (2) references (known/respected persons or organisations) in support of your nomination whom we could contact for additional information (question 15 below). You can find answers to your questions on the nomination and selection procedure on the website www.humanrightstulip.nl.

Only shortlisted nominees will be contacted. The names and profiles of the finalists will be announced on our website. The winner of the Human Rights Tulip will be invited to participate in several public events, including the award ceremony in the Netherlands in December 2022.

Please be aware that the process of selecting the winner of the Human Rights Tulip involves public visibility. This may, in certain cases, increase the risks the nominee faces. We therefore strongly urge you to take account of potential adverse impacts on the nominee's safety and to discuss these potential impacts with the nominee.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs will process personal data in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation. The data provided will only be used for the nomination and selection procedure of the Human Rights Tulip. All the data provided will be deleted within 12 weeks after the Human Rights Tulip has been awarded.

1. Is the nominee a specific person OR an organisation? (please select one):

A person

An organisation

2. Has the nominated person or organisation given explicit, full consent to the nomination? (please indicate yes or no)

Yes

No

3. Contact details of the nominee (in the case of an organisation, please provide the contact details of a representative):

Last name (surname) as in passport:

First name (given name) as in passport:

Name of organisation:

Age:

Country of residence:

Gender (select all that apply):  Female  Male  Nonbinary
 Other (specify):

Email address of the nominee:

Telephone number of the nominee:

Languages spoken and understood by the nominee:

4. Areas of work of the nominee (select maximum of three):

<input type="checkbox"/> Civil and political rights	<input type="checkbox"/> Economic, social and cultural rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Right to freedom of expression and opinion	<input type="checkbox"/> Labour rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Equal rights of LGBTI people	<input type="checkbox"/> Sexual and reproductive health rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Digital rights and privacy	<input type="checkbox"/> Environmental rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Right to freedom of religion or belief	<input type="checkbox"/> Business and human rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Women's rights and gender equality	<input type="checkbox"/> Children's rights
<input type="checkbox"/> Supporting the multilateral human rights system	<input type="checkbox"/> Refugees and victims of armed conflict
<input type="checkbox"/> Fight against impunity and accountability for international crimes	<input type="checkbox"/> Rights of indigenous peoples
<input type="checkbox"/> Enforced disappearance and missing persons	<input type="checkbox"/> Humanitarian assistance and development
<input type="checkbox"/> Conflict resolution and peace building	<input type="checkbox"/> Other:(indicate here)
<input type="checkbox"/> Detention and slavery

5. Description

Briefly describe the nominee's human rights work and the methods and activities that this work entails. (maximum 250 words)

6. Political and sociocultural background

Briefly describe the sociocultural and political situation in which the nominee is working and the relationship of the nominee's work to this background. (maximum 250 words)

7. Risks and resistance faced by the nominee

Is the nominee facing risks, problems or resistance because of their human rights work? Who or what is complicating or hindering the nominee's work? How does this affect the nominee's life and working conditions? Has the nominee taken any steps or measures to address these challenges? (maximum 250 words)

8. Innovation

Briefly explain what aspects of the nominee's work can be regarded as creative, cutting-edge and successful and why. Please give specific examples of the nominee's innovative approach and successes achieved. (maximum 150 words)

9. Impact

Who benefits from the nominee's work? Briefly describe the impact of this work on beneficiaries and/or rights holders. (maximum 150 words)

10. Partner organisations

Does the nominee work actively with other partner organisations and/or communities at national and/or international level? How are these partners involved in developing and carrying out the work? (maximum 150 words)

11. Sustainability and scalability of the work

How does the nominee make their work sustainable, and what is needed to ensure this? Is there potential for this work to be scaled up? What would be needed to do so, in terms of human and financial resources, organisational capacity, external support, etc.? How might others potentially benefit from this work in the future? (maximum 250 words)

12. Benefit of the award

How could the Human Rights Tulip award benefit the nominee and their work? (maximum 100 words)

13. Recognition

Has the nominee's work received any public recognition? If so, what awards, expressions of appreciation or other forms of recognition have been received, and from whom?

14. Information on the person submitting the nomination (nominator):

Last name (surname):

First name (given name):

Name of organisation
(if applicable):

Country of residence:

Email address:

Telephone number:

15. Please provide the names of two references in support this nomination:

Reference 1
Last name:
First name:
Country of residence:
Organisation (if applicable):
Email address:
Telephone number:

Reference 2
Last name:
First name:
Country of residence:
Organisation (if applicable):
Email address:
Telephone number:

16. Supporting documents

If you like, you may share additional information about the work of the nominee, such as links to their website, reports, publications, media coverage, videos or any other online information referring to the nominee's work. You may also send published videos by Firefox Send or WeTransfer (to dmm-tulip@minbuza.nl). Please limit this additional information to a maximum of five links and/or files.