

Week 49, 2-6 December:

Questions were asked on the availability on the website of the application form for the DSP program.

Answer:

The Dutch version of the application form has been published on December 5th on this website, as was announced in the grant policy rules.

The English translation is under way and will be published before January 2, 2020, as announced on the English website.